

Holloway Brooch, 1909

The brooch was awarded by the Women's Social and Political Union to members who served a period of imprisonment for their militant suffragette activity.

Hunger strike medal presented to Emmeline Pankhurst, 1912

- Look at the pictures, make hypotheses.
- Find important information: answer WH- questions
- Read sentence after sentence and understand.
 - What were the consequences of vandalism for the Suffragettes?
 - What did the Suffragettes do when they were in prison? Did they carry on the fight? How?
 - What was the message hunger strikers wanted to pass?
 - What would have been the consequences if a suffragette had died from hunger (for the WUSPU and for the government)?
- Get ready to report to the class
