

Tattle

25 January 1964

& Bystander 2s.6d

Weekly

At home with peanut factory heiress and golden-ticket winner Veruca Salt.

ONLY ONE GOLDEN TICKET LEFT!!

The Teavee household was crammed with visitors this afternoon, all hoping to catch a glimpse of lucky winner Mike Teavee.

However, the pistol-toting youth seemed extremely annoyed by all the fuss as he attempted to focus on a gangster shootout on television.

Marvellous Surprises

As news of Mr Wonka's hidden Golden Tickets spreads, the whole world becomes caught up in a chocolate-buying frenzy. The first child to strike gold is Augustus Gloop, a boy so plump he looks like he has been "blown up by a powerful pump". Following hot on his heels are rich Veruca Salt, gum-chewing Violet Beauregarde and television-crazy Mike Teavee. Poor little Charlie Bucket can only dream of such fantastic luck...

When Charlie Bucket wins a Golden Ticket to visit Willy Wonka's chocolate factory, he and four other winners enter a world of marvellous inventions and edible delights. But inside this sugary maze, the likes of greedy Augustus Gloop and spoilt Veruca Salt are in for some nasty surprises...

Charlie Bucket

Charlie's Family

Charlie, his parents and four grandparents all live together in a tiny, two-roomed house. Only Mr Bucket has a job, screwing on toothpaste caps in a factory, and the family never has enough to eat.

