

WORKSHEET 5 - FINAL TASK

HUMAN RIGHTS
WATCH

Get ready to read a press release.

You are the spokesperson for an association defending children's rights and believe that progress has still to be made on this issue... even in the USA! Write a press release about the current situation for children and get ready to read it.

In your press release, you must:

- introduce yourself and your organization,
- remind your listeners of the condition many children had to face in the 19th century,
- say that huge progresses have been made ever since,
- but explain your worries and concerns about the current situation,
- urge authorities to tackle the problem and ask for public support.
