

Supermarket Lady

By Duane Hanson, 1970

Help

Description :	Interprétation:
Hair roller: bigoudi Stack of products / items: pile de produits Wide breasts/ hips: forte poitrine, hanches larges Overweight / obese: obèse Tight: serré Ugly: laid Be full to the brim: être rempli à ras bord	Harsh criticism: Consumer society: Drawback defect Revolt / Gross (fam.) Realistic To brainwash into doing something To exaggerate To denounce To be aware of ± to know

1. Sum up what has been said, and write your own description.

3. Find out what the author wants to denounce.

4. Explicit the woman's problem ?

5. Describe your perfect trolley. If you could buy whatever you want in the supermarket what would you buy ? Explain your choices.

6. Think : In your own opinion, what is the danger of a consumer society