Bob the builder says :
Hi Daphné ! My name is Robbie Bailey, a.k.a. Bob the Builder, and I'm your partner in the exchange programme.

Fabuleuse Belle Intelligente says :
Hi Robbie, this is Daphné Leroy, direct from Chartres in France. It's fun to i.m. with you. 😊 Where do you live ?

Bob the builder says :
I live in England in Wimbledon, you know, the famous tennis place near London.

Fabuleuse Belle Intelligente says :
Great ! I'm a tennis fan. What about you ?

Bob the builder says :
I'm not : I prefer soccer. How old are you ? I turned eighteen last month on the fifth. 😊

Fabuleuse Belle Intelligente says :
I'm one year younger than you. My birthday is on June, the twenty-ninth. What about your family? Do you have siblings ?

Bob the builder says :
Yes, I have two older brothers, Matt and Tom, and a twin sister, Sam. And you ?

Fabuleuse Belle Intelligente says :
I'm an only child. By the way, what's the name of your school ? Which diploma are you preparing ?

Bob the builder says :
I prepare a BTEC Nat. construction at Wimbledon High School GDST. 🤖 What about you ?

Fabuleuse Belle Intelligente says :
I prepare a Bac Pro Secrétariat at "Lycée Professionnel Elsa Triolet" in Lucé.

Bob the builder says :
And what music are you into ?

Fabuleuse Belle Intelligente says :
I love R'n'B. My favourite singers are Rihanna, Beyonce and R Kelly. What about you ?

Bob the builder says :
I'm keen on Electro music. I like Air, Mondotek and DJ Dess.

Fabuleuse Belle Intelligente says :
All right ! I'm sorry, Robbie, but I must go to bed. 😊 I must get up early tomorrow. Take care and talk to you soon.

Bob the builder says :
OK, see U !

William Wrigley Jr. came to Chicago in the spring of 1891. He was 29 years old, had $32 in his pocket. He also had great talent as a salesman.

His father, William Arthur Wrigley had a soap factory in Philadelphia. His son's first job was naturally selling Wrigley's Soap. When he arrived in Chicago, William Jr. started to offer premiums to shopkeepers in order to boost his sales. One of these premiums was baking powder. As it was more public about the benefits of his gums through newspapers, magazine ads, and street posters. So, more and more people began buying Wrigley's chewing gum all around America.

But the company didn't stop there and rapidly became an international business. Indeed, in 1910, William built a factory in Canada then he expended to Australia and Great-Britain. Chewing gum was introduced to Continental Europe by the American soldiers in June 1944. Later, new brands appeared, such as "Freudent" in 1975, and "Winterfresh" in 1994. Today, all over the world people chew Wrigley's latest brands "Airwaves" (1998) and "X-cite" (2002) of that gum originally "made in the USA". ■ Jinny Godmundsen popular than soap, he changed for that business the same year.

Then one day in 1892, Mr. Wrigley got another idea. This time, he gave chewing gum with each can of baking powder he sold. It was a big success. So he decided that chewing gum was the ideal product and he began marketing it that year under his own name in 1893. His first successful brands were "Juicy Fruit" and Wrigley's "Spearmint". And so started the world's most popular and successful chewing gum business.

William was also a pioneer in the use of advertising. He informed the
